South Jackson Street Band

The band was founded in the early Seventies by Bob Carter of Tullahoma, TN. The South Jackson Band has established a name for itself as one of the finest Big Band repertory groups in the Middle Tennessee area. This band has built its reputation from quality performance, outstanding musicianship, and extensive repertoire.

Bringing the music of the Big Band era to life is the joy of its highly talented, professional musicians. They have championed the Big Band art form by offering a repertoire of over 300 songs from Glen Miller and Artie Shaw to the music of Duke Ellington and Elton John.

The band features five Saxophones, three to four Trumpets, four Trombones, Drums, Keyboard, Rhythm/Lead guitar, and Bass Guitar, Male and Female vocalist. Each musician has intense desire to bring to life the music of the Big Band era makes for an evening of pure musical bliss.

You are certain to get 'In The Mood' for an evening of entertainment that encourages you to get up and dance, tap your feet, or sing along.
